RETIRING MAYOR

Reverend Jill Daniel led prayers.

Prior to the commencement of the meeting, the outgoing Mayor, Councillor Colin Parker, welcomed all present to the Annual Meeting of the Council and thanked invited guests for attending.

Councillor Parker invited those present to observe a minute's silence as a mark of respect for the late Mr Robert Leeper, former Town and District Councillor.

In his retiring remarks, Councillor Parker reflected on his year in office and spoke of the great honour it had been to serve the people of Newton Abbot. He remarked upon the strong sense of community spirit, resilience and pride that continues to define the town, and praised the many individuals, organisations and businesses that contribute to Newton Abbot's vibrant and positive atmosphere. He referred to the many encouraging comments received throughout the year, including through social media, which highlighted the town's upbeat character and community achievements.

Councillor Parker also acknowledged the significant work undertaken by the Council during the year, including ongoing involvement in Local Government Review, asset transfers and a number of major projects. He highlighted the continued growth and success of Newton Abbot Museum and expressed appreciation to the Museum staff and volunteers for their dedication.

Special thanks were extended to Councillor Louise Cooke for her steadfast support throughout the municipal year in her role as Deputy Mayor. Councillor Parker stated that throughout his tenure he had remained mindful of the responsibilities of the office and had sought to carry out the role with integrity, fairness and commitment, recognising that the role of Mayor extends far beyond ceremonial duties alone.

Councillor Parker expressed his sincere gratitude to all those who had supported him during the year, including fellow Councillors, Officers and the Mayor's Chaplain, Reverend Jill Daniel. He also conveyed his deepest appreciation to his family, especially the Mayoress, Mrs Jean Parker, for their unwavering support.

Councillor Parker then presented a cheque for £3,000 to a representative of the Mayor's charity, Citizens Advice Teignbridge. The representative of the charity thanked the Mayor and all those who had contributed to the fundraising efforts during the year and outlined how the funds would support the charity's ongoing work within the community.

In concluding, Councillor Parker offered his best wishes to the incoming Mayor and assured them of the Council's full support and respect in undertaking the role. Councillor Parker then formally presided over the commencement of the meeting.
