- Falcon Digital's record of providing a digital lifeline for charity and community groups;

- the Visit Newton Abbot website was unrelated to a similar website which had been presented to the town council in 2024;
- he had no current involvement with the Newton Abbot Chamber of Commerce;

374. TRANSPORT – 20 MPH

Councillor M Ryan reminded members of the background to the proposal and the issues faced by Buckland. - the support for the scheme shown by the manager of the Wetherspoons pub on Queen Street and by one of the judges; and
- the proposed route for the walk-through with the judges, as discussed with the aforementioned council officers.

Councillor M Ryan remarked on the wider issue of keeping Newton Abbot tidy, deploring the lack of bins on Queen Street, which resulted in people littering the planters.

Councillors expressed gratitude to the Chairperson and to council staff for their dedication to South West in Bloom.

376. GREEN SPACES UPDATE

The Administrative Officer - Green Spaces gave a brief summary of the report submitted, highlighting:-
