RESOLVED that the Town Council hereby grants £950 to Girl Guiding Newton Abbot to fund transport to enable them to attend the County Camp on the Devon/Somerset border.

110. INTERNAL AUDIT REPORT 2022-23

The Chairperson introduced the Internal Audit Report 2022-23, circulated prior to the meeting.

Members analysed the report and were satisfied that the three minor recommendations contained at the end of the report had been implemented, Members agreed it was an excellent report and expressed their thanks to the RFO and the Town Clerk for their due diligence to ensure the Council's finances meet the necessary standard as set out in the Joint Panel on Accountability and Governance (JPAG).

Members were reminded that following the elections the Council must appoint a new Councillor to review and sign off bank reconciliations. It was agreed that Councillor M Joyce will be the nominated Member.

The RFO further explained that the Public Notice for the year ending 31st March 2022 had been issued late due to the whistleblowing allegations and investigations. It was noted that this was unprecedented.

Accordingly, it was:

RESOLVED that the Finance & Audit Committee formerly approves the Internal Audit Report 2022-23.

111. NEWTON IN BLOOM

The Town Clerk informed Members that the contract for the Newton In Bloom floral displays in the town was due for tender. It was noted that due to inflationary increases over the tender period the project could see a significant increase in costs. In addition, the Town Development Manager has undertaken a review of the current provision across the town and advised the current infrastructure requires updating. The Town Clerk confirmed that CIL funding can be used to update the infrastructure but not the planting.

The Town Clerk advised that previously it has proven difficult to find a contractor that is able to do both the planting and watering/maintenance. Arising from the discussions, it was:

RESOLVED that the Finance & Audit Committee:

- a) Forms a Newton In Bloom Working Group to agree the tender specification. Membership of the working group will include the Chairperson of the Community & Heritage Committee, Councillor L

Chairperson initials.....

Cooke, Town Development Manager, Office Administrator, the Town Clerk and interested persons.

- b) Submits a recommendation to the Full Council meeting on the 19th July 2023 to grant delegated authority to the Community & Heritage Committee at its meeting on the 18th October 2023 to consider and agree successful tender applications.
