RETIRING MAYOR

Prior to the commencement of the meeting, the outgoing Mayor, Councillor Alex Hall, welcomed all present to the Annual Meeting of the Council, with thanks to the invited guests. Councillor Hall invited those present to join him in observing a minute's silence as a mark of respect for the late Mr Ken Purchase, former Mayor, Town Crier, and valued volunteer at Newton Abbot Museum. Following the period of silence, Councillor Colin Parker spoke warmly of Mr Purchase's dedicated involvement with the town and community over many years.

Councillor Hall highlighted key moments from his term, including the great honour of presenting the Freedom of the Town to former councillors Carol Bunday and Mike Hocking. He remarked that it had been an enormous pleasure and a real honour to serve as Newton Abbot's youngest Mayor at the age of 22.

Special thanks were extended to Councillors Colin Parker and David Corney-Walker for their steadfast support during the year. Councillor Hall also presented a cheque for £2,143.61 to a representative of the Mayor's Charity, The Life Chance Trust. The representative expressed
